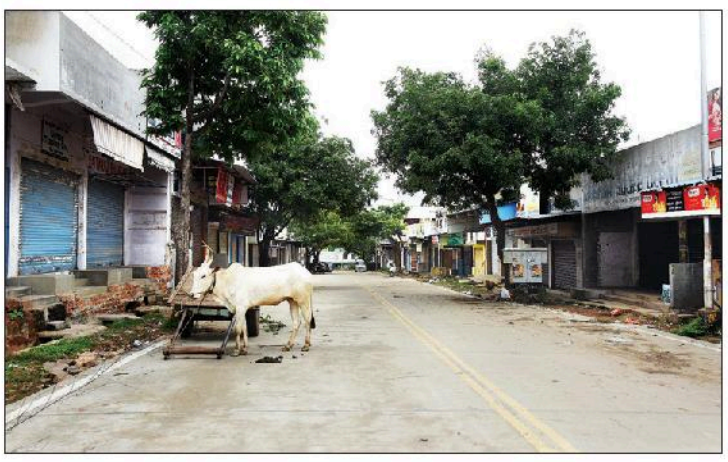
APMC traders observe bandh in protest against 5% GST

Mysuru, July 15 (RK&DM)- Strongly opposing the Centre's decision to impose 5 percent GST (Goods and Services Tax) on branded and packaged food grains and products, the traders of APMC Yard at Bandipalya on Nanjangud Road observed a bandh today.

Following a Statewide bandh call by APMC Merchants Association and Rice Mill Owners Association, about 800 foodgrain shops in APMC Market and about 80 in Old Santhepet area in the heart of the city remained shut today, which severely affected wholesale trading across the city. However, the vegetable market and shops selling other articles in APMC were open.



The Mysore Chamber of Commerce and Industry (MCCI) had extended support to the bandh.

APMC Commission agents, purchasers, traders and Labour Unions too had announced their support to the bandh.

Contending that the 5% GST on branded and packaged food products is an additional burden on both the traders and consumers, the APMC traders argued that the imposition of GST (which will come into force from July 18) will shoot up the prices of foodgrains, which is going to impact the poor, middle and labour class.

The traders submitted a memorandum to MCCI President K.B. Lingaraju at MCCI office on D. Devaraj Urs Road, to be forwarded to the Government. The memorandum urged the Government to review the decision to impose 5 percent GST on foodgrains.

Mysuru Grain Merchants Association President Basavaraju, Vice-President S. Prakash, Secretary R. Anand, Executive Committee members Shyam, Dinesh, R.M. Satish, Venkatesh and others were part of the traders delegation that submitted a memorandum.

Fans cheer 'next CM' DKS in Siddu's hometown

KPCC President takes KSRTC bus to Chamundi Hill on third Ashada Friday

Mysuru, July 15 (MTY&BCT)- Amidst preparations for former Chief Minister Siddharamaiah's 75th birthday event, 'Siddharamotsava', on Aug. 3 at Davangere and supporters of KPCC President D.K. Shivakumar (DKS) planning to organise 'Shivakumarotsava' on the lines of 'Siddharamotsava' to honour the service of the KPCC President to Congress party, Shivakumar's ardent supporters chanted slogans in support of their leader at Chamundi Hill this morning.

The supporters shouted "next CM D.K. Shivakumar" in unison when the KPCC President visited Chamundi Hill this morning on the third Ashada Friday.

DKS prayed to Goddess Chamundeshwari and had a special darshan, accompanied by his wife Usha, inside the sanctum sanctorum of the Hill Temple.

Shivakumar visited the Temple at a time when the State is witnessing an ongoing power tussle between two top leaders of the Congress — DKS and CLP leader Siddharamaiah. Both the leaders are aspiring to be the Chief Ministerial face of Congress party and shadow-boxing between the two is proving to be an impediment to the party's revival plan.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

In a spiritual journey, the absence of knowledge or wrong knowledge of the Supreme makes us ignorant of the absolute truth and keeps us in darkness. Aren't we the self-effulgent light so beautifully brought out by Adi Shankaracharya in his Eka Shloki? Do we experience darkness? The answer is in the affirmative. After sunset, if there is a power shutdown, we plunge into darkness. But upon the passage of time, our eyes naturally start to adjust to the ambient light and things around us start to appear albeit a bit hazy.

Do we know we are in darkness? One evening as I prepared to enter a park from a well-lit street to walk along its tiled path, it appeared extremely dark. Nevertheless, as I entered my eyes adjusted to the surrounding which became visibly clear. It was my mind that cognised the absence of light inside the park as darkness. We require to query our mind to realise that we are comfortable with our mind's projections and need to shake ourselves out of it. Many will agree that the Supreme is unknown to us as our own self. We need to come out of this darkness through inquiry.

We don't need a torch to search for sunlight; a patient journey along the spiritual path will reveal the sun as the natural source of light. In this case, our own Atma will shine in all its brightness and absolute glory.

This tattoo artist's clients are only 6-years-old

Auckland: Benjamin Lloyd, a New Zealand-based tattoo artist, specializes in impressive airbrushed tattoos for children designed to put a smile on his young clients' faces.

It all started in 2016, when Benjamin shared an image of a friend's young son with a skull and roses design airbrushed on his arm and torso on social media. It looked just like an actual tattoo, even though it was just spray painted on the young boy and in a single day, Lloyd's photo went viral, garnering over 400,000 likes in just a few hours. He had captioned the photo with a promise that if his post got at least 50 likes, he would go to a children's hospital and give the kids there airbrushed tattoos to cheer them up. After his post got hundreds of thousands of likes, he had no choice but to keep his promise.

Scammers live stream fake cricket league

Mehsana: A fake version of cricket's Indian Premier League - set up to con gamblers in Russia - has been broken up after Police arrested the gang behind it.

A criminal group coordinated by a "mastermind in Russia" allegedly created a fake version of the Indian cricket IPL, with farmers and unemployed men posing as players of teams like the Chennai Super Kings, Mumbai Indians or the Gujarat Titans in games broadcast live on YouTube to unsuspecting betting punters in Russia. The games looked real, but the players acted on command, hitting a six, a four, or getting out as directed.

"Crowd noise and sound effects downloaded from the internet made the ambiance appear authentic," according to reports. A top Police official said that four men have been arrested in this connection.

Rest rooms in public places crying for attention

Sir,

The Jaganmohan Palace and the auditorium attached to it is one of the most important public places where tourists visit in large numbers. Many cultural and social functions are held in that auditorium.

But the condition of the toilets there is so horrible that one feels like running away from that building itself ! Added to the dilapidated stairs in the restroom, the stinking smell permeating all around indeed makes one shudder.

Can the authorities please take note of this and do the needful as early as possible particularly when the tourist season is around the corner?

Pvt. firm staff held for pocketing Rs. 6 lakh while counting currency notes in Bank

Mysuru, July 15 (MK&KS)- Lashkar Police have arrested an employee of a private firm for pocketing over Rs. 6 lakh while segregating soiled and good currency notes at a Bank in city.

The accused has been identified as 37-year-old K.K. Nagendra, a native of Harave village in Hunsur taluk and presently residing at a rented house in Vijayanagar 2nd Stage. He has been remanded to judicial custody.

Nagendra, an employee of a private company in Bengaluru, was given the assignment of segregating soiled currency notes in the Bank. He was involved in making bundles (100 currency notes each) of good currency notes to be filled in ATM kiosks and also making bundles (1,000 currency notes each) of soiled currency notes to be sent to the RBI as per rules. There was an agreement done between the State Bank of India (Government Accounts Branch) and the private company from Bengaluru to segregate good and soiled currency notes and make bundles by using shrink wrap.

On March 28, when soiled currency note bundles were sent to the RBI, there was a shortage of 200 currency notes of Rs. 2,000 denomination totalling Rs. 4 lakh. When the staff of the private company recounted the sent currency notes on May 31, they found a shortage of Rs. 2,01,100 (35 notes of Rs. 2,000, 258 notes of Rs. 500 denomination and 21 notes of Rs. 100 denomination). In all, the staff found Rs. 6,01,100 shortage.

On examining the footage of the camera installed in the currency notes segregation room, they found Nagendra pocketing bundles of currency notes while segregating good and soiled currencies and making bundles.

The Bank Manager, who has handed over the CCTV footage to Lashkar Police, has also lodged a complaint and Lashkar Police, who have registered a case, arrested Nagendra, who has been remanded to judicial custody.

Plot to kill murder convict

Rowdy-sheeters among three arrested by Mandi Police

Mysuru, July 15- Mandi Police have arrested three persons and are on a look out for another for plotting to kill a murder convict.

Those arrested are 27-year-old Avinash alias Avi alias Soppu and 22-year-old Anand alias Gowda, residents of Kanakagiri and 20-year-old Mohammed Junaid of Mandi Mohalla. The Police are on a look out for Dileep of Mandi Mohalla, who is absconding. Those arrested had planned to eliminate murder convict Ravi of Mahadevapura and were waiting to execute their plan, Police said.

Details: On July 13 at about 3.50 am, Mandi Police, who were on their regular beat saw a Hyundai i20 car (KA-04-MH-0651) parked near the Private Bus Stand and on looking at the car from a distance the Police observed the car occupants behaving in a suspicious manner.

The two Cops, who were on the beat called the Police Station and summoned two more Cops as a precautionary measure and proceeded towards the car during which one of the car occupants fled from the spot on seeing them. The Police, who took three more occupants of the car into their custody, searched the car and found lethal weapons such as machetes (long) in it.

The Cops then informed the matter to Inspector Raghu and took the three persons along with the car to Mandi Police Station and subjected them to interrogation during which the Police came to know that they were planning to kill murder convict Ravi and were waiting with lethal weapons as they had information that Ravi would pass by this road.

Ravi, who was convicted in a murder case, was serving jail term since nine years and following illness, he (Ravi) had obtained bail and had come out of the jail 20 days ago. After coming out of jail, Ravi had threatened to kill Avinash and hence those arrested had hatched a plot to eliminate Ravi, Police said.

While Avinash has five attempt to murder cases registered against him at Krishnaraja (KR) and Vidyaranyapuram Police Stations, Anand has three cases of attempt to murder and two cases of assault registered against him at K.R and Vidyaranyapuram Police Stations. Crocodile spotted in KRS boating point

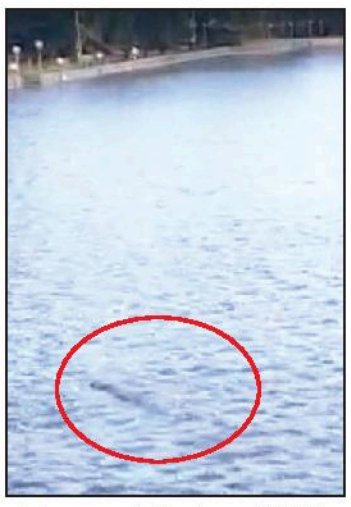
Srirangapatna, July 15- Tension prevailed at the boating point in KRS' Brindavan Gardens after Cauvery Neeravari Nigam (CNN) officials spotted a crocodile in the boating point on Thursday evening.

The CNN officials who have recorded a video of the crocodile's movement in the boating point, brought it to the notice of their higher officials, who rushed to the spot, conducted an inspection and called the Range Forest Officer (RFO) and District/Divisional Forest Officer (DFO) over the phone and held discussions about capturing the crocodile.



The Forest Department officials are said to have told the CNN officials that it is difficult to capture the crocodile when it is in water and asked the CNN officials to cover the eyes of the croc with a gunny bag when it comes out of the water and inform them, so that they can capture and relocate it.

Speaking to Star of Mysore, CNN Assistant Executive Engineer (AEE) Abu said that instructions have been given to the CNN staff to keep vigil on the croc and a joint operation involving CNN staff and Forest staff would be conducted soon and the crocodile would be relocated.

As the level of water in Cauvery River has increased, there are chances that the croc may have swam to the boating point from Ranganathittu, Abu added.

Five years for city's Post Office Passport Kendra

One lakh applicants get their passports in a hassle-free way

Mysuru, July 15 (GA&BCT)- On January 25, 2017, Mysuru got its own Passport Seva Kendra and an extended part of the Post Office in Metagalli was designed as Post Office Passport Seva Kendra (POPSK). The POPSK completed five years in January this year and till now, more than one lakh people have availed of services from this Kendra.

The POPSK became a reality as the Ministry of External Affairs (MEA) then headed by Sushma Swaraj tied up with the Postal Department to offer passport-related services through a network of Post Offices.

It was the pilot project of MEA with Mysuru being the first to launch the service that was inaugurated by the then Union Minister H.N. Ananthkumar. Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha was instrumental in getting the POPSK to Mysuru.

After Mysuru city got its permanent Passport Seva Kendra, an average of 70 to 100 people visited the Kendra every day to get fresh passports, renewals and other related services. Earlier, people had to travel to Bengaluru to apply for fresh passports and other issues.

The POPSK functions like any other Kendra in the country, where the applicant's biometrics and photographs will be taken, documents verified, and a decision on granting the passport taken. If granted, applicants, who do not require Police verification, receive their passports within 15 days.

The estimated time for Police verification for a new passport is around 25 days and annually, the POPSK gets around 25,000 applications. It is an extended arm of the Passport Office and renders front-end services related to passport issuance. It covers functionalities from token issuance to granting the application for passport issue/re-issue and other services.

Speaking to Star of Mysore, Passport Verification Officer Deepak Kumar said that every day, over 100 applicants visit the Metagalli POPSK.

"The response has been good and apart from Mysuru, we also get visitors from the neighbouring districts. Applications are scrutinised in a hassle-free way and they are asked to set right the discrepancies if any in the applications," he said.

Vidyashree, a passport applicant said that the POPSK is providing good service for passport applicants of the Old Mysore region. Earlier, they had to go to Bengaluru and if there is a delay, they had to stay in lodges just to complete the process. Moreover, the staff at Metagalli POPSK are courteous, she added.

Will develop it further

The Post Office Passport Seva Kendra in Mysuru became a reality due to the efforts and directions of former External Affairs Minister Sushma Swaraj and Union Minister H.N. Ananthkumar (both late now). I am happy to learn that more than one lakh people have got their passports in five years. Will strive to develop the POPSK further to include more facilities.

—Pratap Simha, Mysuru-Kodagu MP

Application process

It is mandatory for all applicants to be physically present at the POPSK along with the application print receipt and original documents after submitting the application online. As soon as a person applies for a passport online, an SMS is sent to the applicant's mobile number mentioning the date and time of his scheduled appointment at the POPSK.

On the day of the appointment, the applications will be received at a desk and the officer verifies the same and matches the applicant's photos with the application and takes the biometric data. Later, the officers will scan the documents and send them to the Regional Passport Office in Bengaluru.

If the applicant's documents are not in order, the person is asked to rectify the errors and come with the same the next day so that there is no delay. The entire process is online and there are no paper works involved.

After the Regional Passport Office processes the application, the applicant's jurisdictional Police will get the information about the applicant and they will be asked to verify if any criminal cases have been registered against the applicant.

The Police verification, if required for a specific passport, would be conducted at the address specified in the application form. After the verification is complete, the passport will be delivered by the Post Office to the address specified by the applicant.

All misunderstandings cleared; 2,500 households already registered

Mysuru, July 15 (SBD&BCT)- After suffering initial glitches that revolved around road cutting and repairs, the ambitious project to supply Piped Natural Gas (PNG) to individual homes got a boost with the works being initiated at Vijayanagar I Stage in Chamaraja Assembly Segment last evening.

Three residential areas — Vijayanagar (Ward 20), Mahadeshwara Layout (Ward 3) and Kuvempunagar (Ward 47) — will be covered in this phase and initially, the works will be taken up at Ward 20 Vijayanagar I Stage.

AG&P Pratham India, the city gas distribution arm of the Singapore-headquartered AG&P Group, has bagged the tender to supply piped gas for Mysuru and the supply plant is being set up at Hebbal.

Over 15 kilometres of the pipeline will be laid at a cost of Rs. 20 crore and the works began with a ground-breaking ceremony performed on General K.S. Thimayya Road near Sri Yoganarasimhaswamy Temple.

MP Pratap Simha, Chamaraja MLA L. Nagendra, Corporators M.U. Subbaiah and Shivakumar, Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) Commissioner G. Lakshmikantha Reddy, Superintendent Engineer Mahesh, AG&P Pratham India head Arun Nayak and Karnataka cluster marketing head Nitin Huyilagol were present.

MDPE pipelines

MDPE (medium-density polyethylene) pipelines will be laid to supply gas to individual homes. Along with laying pipelines to individual houses, meters are also being fixed to measure consumption. Households that require connections will have to register first and for this, Aadhaar details and electricity bills are mandatory. Pipelines and meters will be installed free of cost and once installed, a deposit has to be paid.

According to top officials from AG&P Pratham India, nearly 2,500 households have registered so far and they plan to supply PNG to the registered households by Dasara. Gas meters have been installed in 550 houses and 1.5 km of the pipeline had already been drawn so far. The project will eventually cover the entire city for which nearly 600 km of pipeline has to be drawn.

Hebbal gas storage unit

The main pipeline for the project has already been laid from Bengaluru to Mysuru via Bidadi and it has reached Hebbal. From Hebbal, pipelines will have to be laid to several areas of the city. Over 28 km of pipeline has to be drawn along the Outer Ring Road to cover the adjoining residential areas of the Chamaraja Constituency.

The LCNG (Liquid to Compressed Natural Gas) Hebbal storage and supply plant is being set up with an investment of Rs. 600 crore and already giant white storage tanks have come up there.

Speaking on the occasion, Pratap Simha said that eventually, the gas pipeline project will cover the entire Mysuru city. "Yes, there was uncertainty due to certain concerns and misunderstandings. Corporators have been taken into confidence and their fears over the project implementation have been addressed. One of the main fears was who will repair the roads and cover the trenches after the pipelines are laid," he said.

"AG&P Pratham India will be responsible for it and the road repairs would closely follow the completion of the installation of pipes. The MCC has levied Rs. 1,856 per metre as a fee for cutting the roads and roadsides," he added.

Now, he (Simha) has funded five ambulances totally costing Rs.1.42 crore out of his MP funds, he said.

Referring to rain havoc in Kodagu, Simha said that the intensity of rains has come down and floods have receded in the district.

Pointing out that Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai made a personal inspection of flood damages in Kodagu, during which he gave certain instructions to officials on relief, relocation and rehabilitation measures, the MP said that those who lost homes due to natural calamities will be given Rs.5 lakh as compensation.

MLA L. Nagendra, DC Dr. Bagadi Gautham, District Health Officer (DHO) Dr. K.H. Prasad, MMC&RI Dean and Director Dr. H.N. Dinesh, K.R. Hospital Medical Superintendent Dr. Nanjundaswamy, Corporator M.U. Subbaiah and others were present.

Dr. K.H. Prasad

He also advised people to get treated immediately if they show signs of fever or any other symptoms.

Regarding COVID, the DHO said that the pandemic is totally under control in the district and there is no need to panic in this regard.

Third Ashada Friday at Hill Temple

- Hundreds of devotees climb 1,008 steps to avoid COVID-19 regulations
- Chamundeshwari Vardhanti on July 20

Mysuru, July 15 (MTY&SSM)- The third Ashada Shukravara atop Chamundi Hill offering puja to Goddess Chamundeshwari continued to get hundreds of devotees amidst drizzle and cold breeze. The devotees had started gathering in front of the Hill Temple as early as 3 this morning to have darshan of the presiding deity decorated with 'Mahalakshmi Alankara.'

The special pujas and rituals associated with Ashada Shukravara began as early as 3.30 am. Several rituals like Mahanyasapoorvaka Rudrabhisheka, Abhisheka, various Archanas, etc, led by Sri Chamundeshwari Temple Chief Priest Dr. N. Shashishekar Dixit were performed to the deity while the Mahamangalarathi was performed between 5.10 am and 5.20 am. Once the arathi and pujas were over, devotees were allowed to have darshan at 5.30 am.

Devotees stood under the water-proof pendal in separate queues paying Rs. 300 and Rs. 30 and Dharma Darshan queue which is a free entry.

As the Police issued orders regarding the withdrawal of the passes provided by the Police for devotees to access Chamundeshwari Temple, the Hill Temple saw the least number of private vehicles.

Wordy duel ensued between Police and devotees who came from various districts including Bengaluru as they were restricted near Kurubarahalli Circle leading to Chamundi Hill Road. Police who had installed barricades near the Circle did not accept the pass brought by several devotees claiming that they had received passes from Ministers and MLAs.

The Chamundeshwari Temple saw more devotees this morning compared to the last two Ashada Fridays which were on July 1 and 8.

The Grand Chamundeshwari Vardhanti Utsava will be held on July 20.

Free bus facilities for all the devotees were arranged from Lalitha Mahal grounds to the Hill Temple. Devotees were allowed only after checking their COVID-19 vaccination certificate or RT-PCR test negative reports. However, hundreds of devotees climbed the steps to reach the Hill Temple to avoid checking.

D.K. Shivakumar (DKS) was to arrive at the Temple at 9.30 am but was delayed and he took the free KSRTC bus service to reach the Temple from the Lalitha Mahal Helipad. Shivakumar's convoy was parked at the Helipad. From the KSRTC bus stop atop the Hill, the KPCC President walked up to the Temple amidst his cheering supporters.

While he refused to acknowledge the waiting reporters on his way to the Temple, he spoke to them while on his way back to the KSRTC bus stop. Shivakumar was accompanied by KPCC Working President R. Dhruvanarayan, former MLAs Vasu and M.K. Somashekar.

The KPCC President downplayed 'Siddharamotsava' and said that it will be a party event and not an individual one. "The achievement of the Congress party when Siddharamaiah was the CM will be highlighted. He claimed that Siddharamaiah's birthday bash will showcase the 168 pro-people schemes implemented by the Congress Government during Siddharamaiah's tenure as the CM.

DKS reiterated that he does not encourage personality cult. "I want everyone to worship the party and not any individual. Our responsibility is to ensure that Congress is brought to power and sent to Vidhana Soudha in 2023," he said.

Puri Jagannath Rath Yatra held in city for first time

Mysuru, July 15 (BCT)- Jagannath Rath Yatra is considered to be the most auspicious and religious festival of the year. It is celebrated with great enthusiasm and fervour and at the main Temple in Odisha's Puri, people come from across the world to participate.

This festival is observed on the Shukla Paksha Dwitiya Tithi in the month of Ashada. Jagannath Rath Yatra was celebrated in Odisha's Puri on July 1 and thousands came to Odisha to witness the festivities at the 12-century iconic shrine of Lord Jagannath, hugely revered by the devotees.

For the first time, the Rath Yatra was celebrated in Mysuru this year, adhering to all the rituals associated with the festival. The Car Festival of Mahavishnu Avatar Prabhu Jagannath was celebrated recently at the Puri Jagannath Temple in Vidyaranyapuram Main Road. As the chariot was pulled, cries of joy reverberated in the air and over 2,000 devotees actively took part.

The annual Rath Yatra of the holy trinity — Lord Balabhadra, Devi Subhadra and Lord Jagannath — took place with full public participation in Mysuru. The idols of Gods are carved from neem trees with large round eyes and symmetrical faces.

Throughout the year Prabhu Jagannath gives darshan to devotees who come to his temples. However, he gets on to the streets — as signified by the Rath Yatra — as many people cannot visit temples and the Lord himself goes to the devotees.

The Puri Jagannath Temple has been built by Puri Jagannath Cultural and Welfare Trust, in Mysuru. The temple, a first of its kind, was established on Aug. 31, 2021.

According to Ghanashyam Pradhan, Managing Trustee, Puri Jagannath Cultural and Welfare Trust, the last darshan of Lord Jagannath was on June 14 on the 'Deva Snana' Purninia Day. On this day the deities had their annual bath.

As per the belief and tradition, after the 'Deva Snana,' the Gods (Jagannath, Balabhadra, Devi Subhadra and Sudarshan) were infected with cold and were put under isolation (quarantine) in a dark room (Anasaraghar) for 15 days. The Gods came out of 'Anasaraghar' on June 30 and gave 'Navajoubana Darshana' to the devotees followed by 'Rathjatra' on July 1.

On July 1, at 3 pm, hundreds of devotees pulled the chariot with the help of thick ropes.

Bahuda Jatra, the return journey was celebrated on July 9. The 'Suna Besha' ritual was done on the chariot the next day followed by 'Adhar Panna' (offering of Sarvat) to the deities.

Finally, the deities entered the Temple (Neeladri Bije) on July 12. This year, Cycle Pure Agarbathi associated itself with the festivities by lighting a 10-ft 'Akhanda Agarbathi' in front of the Temple. Janhavi Murthy, a family member of N. Ranga Rao and Sons, lit the Agarbathi.

Guru Purnima celebrated at Sharath Yoga Centre

Mysuru, July 15- Guru Purnima was celebrated at Sharath Yoga Centre, a prominent Ashtanga Yoga institute in the city on July 13.

Over 200 students from various nationalities gathered at the Centre, located in Hebbal, to pay their respects to the Ashtanga Yoga Guru Sharath Jois.

Students said this Guru Purnima was especially important to them due to the COVID-19 pandemic that had prevented them from visiting their teacher in Mysuru for the last two years.

After the morning rituals of puja and aarti, Sharath Jois addressed the gathering by emphasising the importance of a spiritual guru to guide people caught up in the delusions of the world out of their miseries.

Students presented various cultural art forms of their countries and offered flowers to the teacher before the celebrations concluded.

Obavva self-defence training for girls mired in problems

- Training inside public parks amidst peering eyes
- No uniforms yet but training nears completion

Mysuru, July 15 (MK&BCT)- The 'Onake Obavva Art of Self-Defence Training' programme in Mysuru is directionless and limping and parents and students have expressed their displeasure on the way the ambitious Government programme is being implemented.

The programme provides a three-month complete self-defence training to over 5,178 girls including 2,316 students from Social Welfare Department, 1,862 from Backward Classes Welfare Department and students from various residential Schools and post-matric girls' hostels.

Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai launched the training programme in Bengaluru in February with much fanfare that is aimed at instilling confidence among girls to defend themselves against anti-social elements and also facilitate their overall personality development

The programme has been jointly initiated by the Social Welfare Department, Backward Classes Welfare Department and girls' hostels that come under Karnataka Residential Educational Institution.

The programme, named after Onake Obavva, pays homage to the woman warrior who killed intruders of the then Hyder Ali army at Madakarinayakana Kote fort in Chitradurga. Karnataka is proud of its legacy of such courageous women, including Kittur Rani Chennamma and Belavadi Mallamma.

The three-month programme is in the course of completion now but uniforms have not been distributed yet and there is no dedicated place for the girls to learn karate and other self-defence techniques.

In all, students from 24 girls' hostels are undergoing the training and the programme is being conducted at public parks as there is no place in the hostels that are functioning in rented buildings. The parks are public places and are filled with walkers and to perform martial arts in front of peering eyes is embarrassing for girl students.

As no uniforms have been supplied to them, the girls are forced to practise in their hostel dresses and night pyjamas. Some even wear jackets that intervene in the performance of exercises. Parents said that the least the departments can do is to supply uniforms so that their children are not embarrassed.

As per the scheme schedule, two classes have to be conducted each week in the three-month course. Since the classes are being conducted inside public parks, they are cancelled if it rains. "Will it take three months to distribute uniforms? Why was the programme launched if the uniforms were not ready? These programmes are just a waste of money and launched only for photographic moments without any planning," said an angry parent.

Officers clarify

Joint Director of Social Welfare Department Malathi told Star of Mysore that initially, the programme was only meant for three months and the Department had completed the training and had distributed the uniforms. The Government is likely to order the restarting of the classes, she added.

Social Welfare Department District Officer H.S. Bindiya said the programme is being conducted at public parks as there is a paucity of space inside the hostels. "Yes, there has been a delay in supplying uniforms and the same would be done in the next fortnight," she added.

WORD OF THE DAY

Carp

Pronunciation: KAHRP.
Meaning: To carp means "to complain in an annoying way," and often suggests that such complaining is habitual.
Origin: Though someone might hypothetically carp about the fish known as carp, the similarity between the words is wholly coincidental. Both entered the English language in the 15th century but from different sources. Like many terms for plants and animals adopted at that point in the language's history, the fish's name traces back to late Latin, but the verb is of Scandinavian origin. It shares an ancestor with the Icelandic verb karpa, meaning "to dispute" or "to wrangle," which in turn comes from an Old Norse word meaning "boasting" or "arrogance." We promise there's nothing fishy about that.
Example: "It's not easy watching money vanish as the market plunges, particularly when many people, some of them highly respected, are carping about the end of the world, which invariably accompanies a market collapse." — Nir Kaissar

THE ODD WORD

Caitiff

Base; cowardly; despicable.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Cock and bull story

Meaning: When you use the expression 'Cock and Bull Story' you mean that someone is telling a tale that's so fanciful that it's unbelievable.
Origin: The origin of the expression 'cock and bull story' comes from the 17th century French term 'coq-a-l'ane', meaning from "rooster to jackass," or an incoherent story passed from one subject to another. The first citation is seen in Robert Burton's 1621 work The Anatomy of Melancholy: "Some mens whole delight is to talk of a cocka and bull over a pot."
Example: "Mindy was late again. When I asked why, she gave me some cock and bull story about her toaster exploding."

QUOTE BOX

There is no greater agony than bearing an untold story inside you.

—Maya Angelou
